

SOME LOCAL ITEMS

Furnished rooms for rent. Apply to Joe Johnston. 29-1f.

Casey had no troubles this week.

T. C. Bishop, of Ashforks, was in Williams Monday.

Jo Attwood and Billy Satori were Ash Fork visitors Sunday.

Mrs. H. E. Mann and sister of Bellemont, spent Sunday in Williams.

Mrs. George Mathews is expecting a visit, from her mother and sister.

Crowe & McCoy are having a new roof put upon their "Life Saving Station."

W. F. Cooper, of Flagstaff, visited friends here Wednesday and Thursday.

Dr. Baker came down from Flagstaff Sunday and spent the day in Williams.

J. B. Jones was a Flagstaff visitor on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.

Walter Griswold, of Terre Haute, Indiana, is working in the Parlor barber shop.

W. A. Campbell of Flagstaff was a visitor in the city the early part of the week.

A. K. Hawkins, a stock raiser, of Spring valley, was a visitor to Williams Thursday.

X. N. Steeves, our local attorney, was a business visitor at Ash fork the first of the week.

Miss Irene Johnston entertained her friend, Miss Perkins of Flag staff, several days this week.

Dick Dugger left last Saturday for Los Angeles, where he intends to remain the coming winter.

Emmett R. James, a stockman, from north of Seligman, was a visitor in Williams Wednesday.

Jesse Boyce, Coconino county's recorder, and wife spent Sunday last with Mrs. James Patterson.

Go to the Keystone Monogram. Headquarters for everybody.

SWEETWOOD & WAKEFIELD.

C. C. Hutchinson departed Monday for Phoenix where he will remain for several days before returning here.

John Thomas, the man with the "groceries," tried a day or so of lower Arizona climate at Needles last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Goswick, Bellemont people were registered as guests of the Grand Canyon hotel Monday of this week.

Mrs. Todd C. Woodworth returned Monday evening from Winslow, after spending a few days visiting friends.

C. W. Cook and Mrs. Jones, both of the Escalante hotel, Ashforks, spent a day in Williams this week, visiting friends.

A. H. Lingo and wife are spending a few days at the ranch of C. E. Boyce enjoying a little mountain air and scenery.

L. Moro left Monday with several carload of sheep, enroute for Kansas City. C. C. Hutchinson was the shipper.

Dr. Oldaker, member of the government bureau of animal industry, is in Williams, to remain until further orders.

Roy Perkins arrived from here from Los Angeles Monday and will make Williams his home for the next few months.

W. O. Perkins the well known Flagstaff sheep man was transacting business in Williams, the early part of the week.

George Hanlon, of Flagstaff, arrived in Williams on Monday, and was here the major portion of the week on business.

"Spike" Hennessy, foreman for Frank Ebert at Red lake, was in town the early part of the week, looking after herders.

Dr. A. G. Rounseville and wife, departed for Flagstaff Tuesday on No. 2 for a short visit with friends. They returned last evening.

John Selmon and Frank Bell purchased the O-B cattle of J. Salzman this week. Mr. Bell will care for them on the range.

Don Reed of Los Angeles has accepted the position of cashier at the Sante Fe depot. W. M. Sangster of Needles is now bill clerk.

Mr. Andrew Miller informs us that he has found the sorrel mare, which he reported lost last week, and feels duly thankful therefor.

Work on the Harvey House is progressing rapidly. The wives of several of the mechanics employed on the work arrived this week. The contractor, C. Leonard, who has built several of the Harvey houses, is well versed in the procedure in this class of work and is making every day count.

The well known and genial Ashfork engineer, Jim Hance, spent a few hours in Williams on Monday, while his engine boiler was cleaned.

Mike Reneke began cutting his hay on Tuesday. Mike reports a fair crop this year, but unless good rains come pretty soon much of it will be lost.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Cummings returned Tuesday from Flagstaff, where they had been visiting with their daughter, Mrs. E. A. Cameron for a few days.

Mrs. William Harmon has been quite ill the past week, suffering from a slight attack of sun stroke incurred by working in her garden. She is much improved.

Chas. H. Adams departed for the Anita country Thursday morning, where he will superintend the work now being done on the Nesmith mining properties.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Twitty returned from Prescott last Monday, where they had been for the past two weeks at the bedside of Mr. Twitty's mother, who is very ill.

The Grand Canyon hotel has undergone several repairs of late, and now, under the efficient management of Host Cornish, is one of the best and most pleasant in the north.

Ferd Nellis and family are enjoying a visit from Mr. Nellis' mother, who arrived from her home in Iowa Sunday last. Mrs. Nellis will remain during the summer months.

R. D. Barfoot and wife are the happy parents of a ten-pound boy who arrived Tuesday evening last. Barfoot's smile is just a little broader than ever, if such can be possible.

Todd C. Woodworth and wife left Wednesday for the Canyon and remained for the balance of the week at the El Tovar. Mr. Woodworth visiting his mines from that point.

Have you heard that new Sublimina piano at the Keystone Monogram? It is about the finest thing in the musical line that has ever been in Williams. Drop in and hear the music.

Harrison Conrad, of Flagstaff, spent Wednesday in Williams. Local people became quite well acquainted with Mr. Conrad while he held the office of county superintendent of schools.

The new schedule of mail runs causes all day passenger trains to stop over at Williams much longer than has been the custom. Numbers 2, 7 and 8 spend at least twenty minutes here each day.

The new railroad round house being constructed north of town, when finished, will cause an influx of several families to be added to our growing population. Things look good for Williams.

The cattle rodeo has been working up Bellemont way the past few days. Reports from cowmen who have ridden in are to the effect that the work has proceeded very satisfactorily the past week.

Majorie Fleming, a former Williams young lady, was a passenger of Tuesday's No. 2 en route from Los Angeles to her home in New Mexico. Miss Fleming has been attending school in California.

Bobby Burns has resigned his position with the Santa Fe at Seligman, and has accepted a position as brakeman on this division, running between Winslow and Seligman as a freight brakeman.

Jules Bauman and wife, of Prescott stopped over in the city one day this week. Mr. Bauman is an artist of some note having painted a picture of the Grand Canyon, which attracted much comment at the time.

The only second class barber shop in Williams. Back of J. B. Jones' business place. Go right along and attend to your business. Kalamazoo. LOUIE FILE.

Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Crawford have closed out their businesses in Williams, and on Monday left for Goldfield, Nevada, where they will make their future home. The News wishes them success in their new home.

Mrs. C. F. Hutchins, of Pasadena, Cal., is stopping with Mrs. Bertha Kennedy and will remain during the summer months. Mr. Hutchins will soon make Williams regularly out of Los Angeles on one of the mail runs.

Your neighbor is using Schotten's coffee and saving 15 cents per pound on all he uses. He says it is good and so will you if you try it. Joe Johnston sells it and the price is only 20 cents per pound, and your money back if not satisfactory. 7-13 tf.

On Thursday evening, July 25, the young people of the Epworth League will give an ice cream social at the M. E. church. Cake and sherbet will be added to the list. You are invited to come and bring your friends along; buy cream and cake with a price; enjoy a social hour.

Frederick S. Dellenbaugh, a well known writer and the author of several books on the west, is stopping at Bass' camp for a few days outing. Mr. Dellenbaugh wrote the Romance of the Colorado River, a book which has elicited much worthy comment from the eastern press.

One of the largest cattle deals in the history of Northern Arizona was consummated at Flagstaff last week, when William D. Roden sold his entire interest to Leo F. Verkamp and O. L. Hart of that city. The consideration is not known, but it is said to have been very large.

Stereopticon lecture on "India in Transition" will be given at the M. E. church Monday night, July 22d. Admission will be free. At the close a free will offering will be taken to defray the expense of rental and transportation. Everybody is invited.

Bids For Wood

Fifty cords of wood, 24 inches long, two tiers to the cord, to be delivered at school house and corded in wood sheds and basement of School District No. 2; Williams, Arizona, on or before the first day of October, 1907.

Will receive bids until July 20th 1907, at 12 o'clock noon.

Board reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

F. W. SMITH,
Clerk of Board of Trustees.

For Sale

About seven carloads of gooseberries. Now is the time to make your jellies and preserves like mother made. 7-13-2t. F. R. NELLIS.

For Sale

My residence, furnished, on reasonable terms. E. LAMB.

For Sale

Six rooms furnished house on reasonable terms. 7-13-tf. E. LAMB.

Letter List

The following is the list of letters remaining unclaimed for at the postoffice, Williams, Arizona, for the week ending July 20, 1907. These letters will be sent to the dead letter office Aug. 10, 1907, if not called for before that time:

Byron, Miss Jessie
Coronado, Cornelia
Cruty, Mr. Jessie
Graves, Clara
Hicks, John
Hernandez, Simon
Herbert, W. J.
Isely, J. W.
James, Felix
Lopez, Guadalupe
Lavinojas, Jacinto
Morgan, Will

Persons calling for the above letters should say "advertised."

A Home Drink

After the fatigue of the day's work—after the dinner is over and you sit down for a comfortable evening at home, a bottle of Pabst Blue Ribbon will add to your enjoyment, and aid your digestion.

Pabst Blue Ribbon

The Beer of Quality

is brewed from Pabst Famous Eight-Day Malt, which contains all of the nourishing wholesome, food properties of barley-grain in predigested form. These properties together with the tonic quality of the choice est hops, give nourishment and tone to the system. The very small percentage of alcohol (less than 3%) is a mild stimulant that prompts the stomach to do its best work.

When ordering beer, ask for Pabst Blue Ribbon.

Made by Pabst at Milwaukee.

And Bottled only at the Brewery.

Jo. Attwood,
Williams, Arizona.
Phone 7.

THE WILLIAMS NEWS

THE LEADING WEEKLY NEWSPAPER OF NORTHERN ARIZONA

ONLY $3.00 PER YEAR

THE NEWS furnishes more local, territorial and general items of interest than any other paper published along the line of the Santa Fe in the Territory. For this reason it is more widely read, and thus affords advertisers the desired medium of reaching the people. The NEWS is always clean and reliable—fit to enter and be read in every home.

SUBSCRIBE AND KEEP POSTED ON ALL OF THE LOCAL AFFAIRS

DO YOU ADVERTISE?

You are now reading this Ad.
If it were yours it would be read also. You see the point.

YOU SHOULD DO SO!